Overview

Amanda Farris is a bankruptcy paralegal in the firm's Litigation Department. In this role, she is responsible for supporting a Chapter 7 Panel Trustee in administrative and accounting functions as well as actively involved in managing bankruptcy litigation, liquidation of assets of bankruptcy estates, employment of professionals in bankruptcy estates, and fulfilling periodic reporting requirements. Mandy also is involved in assisting the representation of creditors in bankruptcy cases in contested matters and in assisting in the representation of debtors in out-of-court negotiations and cases filed under Chapters 7, 11, and 12 of the Bankruptcy Code. She also assists in collection work for clients.

Mandy has more than 15 years of legal support experience, and prior to Coolidge Wall worked at the Montgomery County Child Support Enforcement Agency and another Dayton-based law firm.

Mandy earned her Associate of Applied Science Degree from Sinclair Community College and graduated from its ABA approved Paralegal Program. She also was an Estabrook Academic Scholarship recipient and worked as a Paralegal Intern for the United States Magistrate Court at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. Outside of work, Mandy is involved in the community and is a member of the executive board for the Beavercreek Men's Lacrosse team. She also has been actively engaged in the Dayton Irish dance community.
