

Briana C. Breault

Briana is an associate in Coolidge Wall's Litigation and Bankruptcy Departments. With a background in bankruptcy law, Briana primarily focuses her practice on creditor rights, insolvency, and commercial litigation. Drawing from her diverse background, Briana brings an analytical methodology to her practice, ensuring that her clients are well-informed and confident. Prior to joining Coolidge Wall, Briana worked as a Law Clerk for the Honorable Guy R. Humphrey in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of Ohio. She also was an attorney at the law firm of Rion, Rion & Rion in Dayton, and an associate at Jackson Kelly, in Charleston, West Virginia.

Briana earned her Juris Doctorate at West Virginia University College of Law in Morgantown, West Virginia, simultaneously earning her Masters in Business Administration from the West Virginia University John Chambers College of Business and Economics. She obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology with a minor in Biology at Bethany College in Bethany, West Virginia.

While in law school, Briana held several leadership positions, including president of the Health Law Society, senior member of the editorial board of the Family Law Quarterly through the American Bar Association, and Clerk for the Willey Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, an international law fraternity. In addition, she was treasurer of Moot Court, where she and her team competed and won best oral presentation at the 2019 National Health Law Transactional Moot Court Competition. Briana also received the CALI award for both Professional Responsibility and Appellate Advocacy.

In college, Briana was a member of Psi Chi Society, the national psychology honor society; president of the Bethany College Panhellenic Conference, the governing organization for sororities on campus; Director of Risk Reduction and Social Activities and Director of Philanthropy for Zeta Tau Alpha; and was a member of the Equestrian Team.

Briana is admitted to practice in the State of Ohio and in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

Practice Areas

Litigation

Education

- West Virginia University College of Law, Morgantown, WV
Juris Doctorate – 2019
- West Virginia University John Chambers College of Business and Economics, Morgantown, WV
MBA – 2019
- Bethany College, Bethany, WV
Bachelor of Science – 2015
Major: Psychology
Minor: Biology

Bar Admissions

- West Virginia, 2019
- Ohio, 2021

Professional Involvement

- Ohio State Bar Association
- Federal Bar Association, Dayton Chapter, Member
- Federal Bar Association, Editorial Board to The Federal Lawyer, Proof Editor
- Dayton Bar Association, Member
- American Bankruptcy Institute, Member
- Trustee, Dayton Chapter, American Bankruptcy Law Forum

Contact Info

Briana C. Breault

Phone (937) 449-5770

Fax (937) 223-6705

Email breault@coollaw.com