

Edie E. Crump

Edie Crump has been serving clients with respect to employee benefits and tax-exempt organizations for more than 20 years. Edie strives to understand clients' objectives and apply her experience to develop a practical solution to meet their needs. In the area of employee benefits, she has designed retirement and welfare plans, provided advice regarding compliance and administration issues, and handled issues resulting from corporate acquisitions. Additionally, in the area of tax-exempt organizations, Edie has helped clients through the complex process of seeking tax-exempt status and helped clients remain in compliance with the rules and regulations governing tax-exempt organizations. She has represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Labor, and the State of Ohio.
