Overview

Ericka Shellhammer is a litigation paralegal with more than 30 years of experience. After beginning her legal career with a small general practice firm, in 2000 she took a position as a litigation paralegal and has specialized in civil litigation since that time with firms in Troy and Dayton. Erika joined Coolidge Wall in 2018 and serves the Litigation Department in all aspects of litigation, including drafting pleadings and discovery, e-discovery, research and preparing for and attending trials.

Erika is a graduate of Edison State Community College and lives in Tipp City with her husband and two sons.
