Stephen M. McHugh

COOLIDGE WALL
A Legal Professional Association

Steve McHugh is a veteran attorney with diverse experience serving local government clients and estate planning and estate administration clients.

Steve represents local governments in real estate and zoning matters, municipal litigation, and state and federal employment law representation and compliance. He also deals with matters involving appropriations, annexation, eminent domain, and tax incentive development, as well as labor negotiations and employment issues and contracts. Steve currently serves as Law Director for the City of Bellbrook and Butler Township.

Steve also has developed an extensive estate planning practice and clientele. He handles all facets of estate planning, including drafting of estate plans and trusts for couples and individuals.

Steve has been named an Ohio Super Lawyer and has been listed in the Ohio Super Lawyers magazine since 2009. He is a frequent lecturer on public law issues and has spoken on estate planning issues.
