Daniel J. Gentry

COOLIDGE WALL
A Legal Professional Association

Daniel J. Gentry served as president and CEO of Coolidge Wall from 2022-2026. Following his service as President and CEO of Coolidge Wall, Daniel J. Gentry now serves as Special Projects and Transition Advisor. In this role, he works closely with firm leadership on strategic initiatives and assists in ensuring a seamless leadership transition while continuing to serve clients with the same dedication and responsiveness that have defined his career.

As a member of the litigation department, Dan focuses his practice on business and employment litigation and dispute resolution. He has handled a variety of business disputes, discrimination and harassment claims, non-competition and trade secret litigation, tort litigation, and other disputes arising from business operations and transactions. Dan has tried cases to judges and juries in Ohio courts, advocated before Ohio courts of appeal and administrative agencies, and represented clients in mediations and arbitrations. Most recently before joining the firm, Dan served as in-house counsel to a local high-tech R&D company. He has also provided training to young lawyers and addressed local business organizations on topics of interest related to business disputes.
